WHO ARE WE?

NAVEGAMOS À DESCOBERTA DOS FASCÍNIOS DA MADEIRA E DO PORTO SANTO EM 2025

CATCHAWARDS is an Events Consultancy and Organization company that develops, plans and fully organizes its own events or advises the companies that develop them internally.

We stand out for our concern and focus on the satisfaction of participants and the enhancement of the objectives defined for each project.

More than planning, developing and organizing events, launching products or activating brands, we establish and develop successful partnerships with each client.

WHAT DO WE DO?

We promote more than 100 major sporting, social and leisure events every year.

We prioritize creative and dynamic contact with all our partners, with the aim of providing enriching and unforgettable experiences.

We are committed to promoting national and international sports tourism in high-potential regions, offering solutions of excellence in Portugal and around the world.

We also organize sports internships in mainland Portugal and the islands, from university internships to internships for national and international teams and federations, providing adequate training and rest conditions for athletes.
